

One step closer to

#RESTORINGWELCOME

PD Response - RCUSA - Social Media Toolkit

On May 3rd – after months of delay – President Biden followed through on his promise to set a refugee admissions goal of 62,500 for the remainder of fiscal year 2021. Now, we must make sure that the administration does everything in its power to meet this goal, beginning with the 715 refugees who had their flights cancelled in March.

Share your thoughts on social media to thank President Biden and set forth the work needed to restore hope for thousands of refugees around the world - that they may be reunited with family, that they can begin to build new lives, free from threats of violence.

Download social media images here

TWITTER COPY

Twitter Thread:

TWEET 1

After months of delay, @POTUS is following through on his promise to build back the U.S. refugee program.

But hundreds of refugee families fleeing danger had their flights canceled while waiting on the administration to make this decision.

#RestoringWelcome is just getting started.
(add the image with this tweet)

TWEET 2:

Thousands of refugees have already been vetted and approved for travel. Now the US must follow through with its commitment to bring these people to safety.

#RestoringWelcome is possible.

FACEBOOK COPY

After months of delay, President Biden is following through on his promise to build back the US refugee program. But hundreds of refugee families fleeing danger had their flights canceled while waiting on the administration to make this decision.

Thousands of refugees have already been vetted and approved for travel. Now the US must follow through on its commitment to welcome these people to safety. #RestoringWelcome is possible.

(Include the Facebook photo with this post)

INSTAGRAM COPY

(share the photo of Basuze first followed by the quote graphic)

After months of delay, @POTUS is following through on his promise to build back the US refugee program. But hundreds of refugee families fleeing danger had their flights canceled while waiting on the administration to make this decision.

Thousands of refugees have already been vetted and approved for travel. Now the US must follow through on its commitment to welcome these people to safety. #RestoringWelcome is possible.